To whom it may concern,

The Thorp School District has surplus property available for sale to the public. Such property has exceeded its useful life or no longer meets the program needs of the district.

In accordance with RCW 28A.335.180 and under established COVID-19 guidelines we are notifying public schools and approved private schools in Kittitas County of an opportunity to purchase surplus materials and equipment.

Description of property:

- Text Books
- Office Equipment
- Furniture
- Gym Equipment
- Electronics

The public/private school surplus sale will occur by appointment only on June 15, 2020, and the public surplus sale will occur on June 16, 2020 from 9:00 am – 1:00 pm.

Payment must be received at the time of sale in the form of cash or check. All sales are final. The condition of the property sold is “as is” with no expressed or implied guarantee or warranty. Buyers are solely responsible for pickup and transport of purchased property at the time of purchase.
